Mrs. George A. Myers entertained yesterday afternoon a large number of friends at a tea from 4 to 6, in honor of the nineteenth birthday of her mother, Mrs. Hopperton. The latter, whom the anniversary found in the best of health, received the congratulations of the callers seated in a chair brought from England over a hundred years ago, and which was used by her father in his study. A white lace shawl, one of her wedding presents, was worn by a highly becoming gray gown. Mrs. Hopperton was born in England in 1812, and came to this country in 1820 with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Hopperton, who settled in Utica, N. Y. She is the only survivor of the family, and has lived in this city since the civil war. Her husband was the late Edward Hopperton of this city. Mrs. Myers was assisted by Mrs. L. G. Hine, Mrs. L. M. Kuhns, Mrs. William Hamilton Bailey, Mr. Frank L. Freeman and Mrs. George A. King. A extending hospitality. Numerous floral tributes were sent to Mrs. Hopperton during the day yesterday.

Cardinal Gibbons will be their guest at dinner tonight.

Mrs. Warder, who has been entertaining at a series of musicales, gives another tonight.

The President and Mrs. Roosevelt were the guests at dinner last night of the retiring Postmaster General and Mrs. Chas. Emory Smith. The table was spread in the center parlor of the Vermont avenue suite at the Arlington and was very profusely adorned with pink roses and Farleye ferns, the adjoining rooms being equally fragrant in roses and artistically set with foliage plants. Mr. and Mrs. Smith's guests to meet the President and his wife were the Secretary of War and Mrs. Root, the Attorney General and Mrs. Knox, the Secretary of the Interior and Mrs. Hitchcock, the Secretary of Agriculture and Mrs. Wilson, Senator and Mrs. O. H. Platt, Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Smith, Senator and Mrs. Spooner, Senator and Mrs. Lodge, Senator and Mrs. Hanna, Senator Kean and Miss Kean, the new Postmaster General and Mrs. Payne, Mr. and Mrs. Wayne McVeigh, the assistant postmaster general and Mrs. Johnson, Representative and Mrs. Dulzel, General and Mrs. Corbin, Mr. and Mrs. Clement Griscom of Philadelphia, Mrs. A. E. Bates, Miss Carow, Senator Beveridge, and Representative Edward Morrell.

Mrs. Root, wife of the Secretary of War, will not receive tomorrow (Wednesday). Mrs. Wm. H. Seaman will be at home Wednesday, January 23, and the Wednesdays in February.

Mrs. Alexander Clifton Shaw will not receive tomorrow, nor the Wednesday following, but will be at home to her friends January 23, from 4 to 7, when she will be assisted by her guest, Miss Pauline Finn of Boston, and by Miss Alice Richards, Mrs. A. L. S. Thomas and Mrs. Elden Lewis.

The first informal dance of the Pleasure Seekers will take place at National Rifles Hall, Thursday, January 16. One of the prettiest weddings of the past week was that of Miss Estelle Reisenstein, daughter of Mrs. Thekla Reisenstein, and Nordlinger of Georgetown, last Wednesday evening at the Concordia Club, the Rev. Dr. Stern officiating. At 6 o'clock the bridal party entered the large hall, where all had been made appropriate festive with palms, festooning of pine and white roses. The bride and groom came together and were attended by a little flower girl, Erna Eiselein, in fluffy pink, carrying a bouquet of La France roses, and Messrs. Clarence Reisenstein, Ben Nordlinger, Sidney and Louis Reisenstein, Monroe Luchs, Louis Rosenheim of Baltimore, Max Goodman, Gus Dreyfus, Ferd Reichold of New York, Stanley Auerbach, Thyr Nordlinger, Gus Nordlinger of Chicago, were ushers. The bride wore heavy white silk covered with accordion platings of chiffon and tulle, lace and pearl trimming. She wore a veil fastened over the crown of the head and carried bride roses. A harvest moon of diamonds was her only ornament. About 200 guests, including those of the bride and groom, witnessed the ceremony.

After congratulations an elaborate banquet was served in the dining hall below. The long tables were artistically adorned, and being the color scheme. Later in the evening dancing was enjoyed in the ball room. Mrs. Reisenstein, mother of the bride, wore a handsome gown of black net, with rare lace and diamonds. Mrs. Nordlinger, mother of the groom, wore black crepe de chine, with real lace and diamonds. The bridesmaids wore white, with white and carried violets. The out-of-town guests were Mr. and Mrs. Harry Heilbrun and Miss Helen Heilbrun of New York, Mr. and Mrs. Dave Dinkelspiel and the Misses E. and Blanche Manheim of New York, Mr. and Mrs. S. Newmeyer and Miss Carrie Newmeyer of Havre de Grace, Misses Florence and Minnie Rosenheim of Toledo, Ferd Reichold of New York, Mr. Gus Nordlinger of Chicago, Mr. Louis Rosenheim of Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Nordlinger are on a wedding journey in the north and will be at home in the groom's home in Georgetown after the 1st of February. Many handsome and valuable gifts were received.
